Fall To Rise

Broach

Can you see
The scars on her face
A life of agony
She falls from grace
There's no light
She tries to find

A way out of the dark
Guided by her heart
No glance and glory
Trapped in her story

Obsession
Is she caught in her dream
Obsession
Is it really what it seems
And her daemons crawl
She has to fall to rise

I still see
What she wants to be
A star on the sky
She wants to fly
She still tries
But break down in lies

But she's fallen down
With her golden crown
She wants only glory
Trapped in her story

Confession
She's caught in her dream
Confession
Is she really what it seems
And she can't escape
From her fate
Still her daemons crawl
She has to fall to rise

Obsession
Confession
She is caught in her dream
Obsession
Is she really what it seems
And her daemons crawl
Her daemons crawl
And she must fall to rise
