

You Decide (Acoustic Version) [Bonus Track]

Fireflight

Fiction and reality collide
Faceless and so busted up inside
You've been searching you've been crying out
Will you be destroyed by all your doubt? You decide, who will you run to?
Wrong or right, there is no reason for you to hide
Only love can change your life
Only love can change your life, you decide God is calling out to you again
Let Him pull you, let Him take you in
From the fear that swallows up your life
Will you stay the same or will you fight Every day you hold on to your lonely broken heart
It's tearing you apart
God is calling out to you just let healing start
Will you open up and let Him in
