Blood Tears

Blind Guardian

Welcome to my realm
We are both condemned to live
It's a dark fate
(I can hear your calls
I can hear your calls)
The eternal life
I see it still burns each night I cry in pain
Alive through the end appears my friendAnd blood tears I cry
You've searched and you've found
Cut off your old friends hand
My mind's in frozen dreamsThe rotten flesh of bitter lies
Welcome to where time stands still
No one leaves and no one ever will, can't hold it
It burns each night I cry in painAnd blood tears I cry
Endless grief remained inside
And blood tears I cry
Endless grief remained insideIt seems so clearly, bent the bow
'Cause life in me is gone
And a cruel wind's blowing cold
And a cruel wind's blowing cold in blame
And life it shall wane each night I cry in painAnd blood tears I cry
Endless grief remained inside
