

Damn

LeAnn Rimes

There you go again when you rub up against my skin
I have to catch my breath, I began to sweat, oh
Lips tracin' down my neck and it's scarin' me to death
How'd you learn to draw me to the cliff
Just to push me off, just to push me off the edge
Damn, I hate the way you know me
And damn, you kill me when you hold me
Like I'm your world, like this won't hurt
Like a favorite curse hittin' every nerve
Damn, I'm fightin' and I'm losin'
And damn you, you're pullin' and I'm pushin'
I'm wrestlin' with, I toss and twist
Till finally I give in, damn
I hate bein' addicted, only you would have predicted
That I'd be torn and worn so thin
You can see right through
You can see right through my soul
Damn, I hate the way you know me
And damn, you kill me when you hold me
Like I'm your world, like this won't hurt
Like a favorite curse hittin' every nerve
Damn, I'm fightin' and I'm losin'
And damn you, you're pullin' and I'm pushin'
I'm wrestlin' with, I toss and twist
Till finally I give in
I get reckless, scared, confused
I feel desperate, so for you
And you know it, you know it
You know it, yes, you do
Damn, I hate the way you know me
And damn, you kill me when you hold me
Like I'm your world, like this won't hurt
Like a favorite curse hittin' every nerve
Damn, I'm fightin' and I'm losin'
And damn you, you're pullin' and I'm pushin'
I'm wrestlin' with, I toss and twist
Baby I give in, damn
