Evil

Randy

Evil, they say that evil lives, evil takes and evil gives
Evil, they say that evil lives, that it never forgets, never forgivesNothing wrong, for it's only the same
It's always someone else or something else to blame
Never a question who's master or slave
Or who pushes who to the graveEvil, they say that evil breeds, on evil deeds, evil feeds
Evil, they say that evil breeds, it's a pretty hard bite
On the hand that feedsThey're still burning witches here everyday
And raise their crosses on their holy crusades
It's what happens when you act in the shade
There's where the shadows are madeEvil, I'm not evil, evil, evil, I'm not evil
I'm not evil, I'm not evil, evil, evil, I'm not evil
I'm not evilThey say that evil lives, evil takes and evil gives
Evil, they say that evil lives, that it never forgets, never forgivesNothing wrong, for it's only the same
It's always someone else or something else to blame
Never a question who's master or slave
Or who pushes who to the graveEvil, I'm not evil, evil, evil, I'm not evil
I'm not evil, I'm not evil, evil, evil, I'm not evil
Evil, I'm not evil, evil, I'm not evil
Evil, I'm not evil
