Spike In My Veins

Korn

We are the ones taking all the pain Falling on our faces They don't care anyway

Anyway, now

You're the one that makes me feel like I'm alive

You're the one that pushes me all the time

All the time, nowWe are hard and grey

Always praised to do what they say

Calling me deranged

Feeling power, I must take its place some wayNever gonna run away

Seeking out the path

But the pain always gets in the way

Slowly watch me die

I'm insane, so dangerous

Don't you dare get in my way

Throwing in the towel

Got me strained, so betrayed

Get the fuck out of my way

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsWe are the ones reaching out in vain

Trying to solve our problems

They won't go away, go away now

You're the one that makes me feel like I'm alive

You're the one that pushes me all the time

All the time, nowWe are hard and grey

Always praised to do what they say

Calling me deranged

Feeling power, I must take its place some wayNever gonna run away

Seeking out my path

But the pain always gets in the way

Slowly watch me die

I'm insane, so dangerous

Don't you dare get in my way

Throwing in the towel

Got me strained, so betrayed

Get the fuck out of my way

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsPounding all these spikes in my veins

Pounding all these spikes in my veins

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsNever gonna run away
Seeking out my path
But the pain always gets in the way
Slowly watch me die
I'm insane, so dangerous
Don't you dare get in my way
Throwing in the towel
Got me strained, so betrayed
Get the fuck out of my way

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsPounding all these spikes in my veins

Pounding all these spikes in my veins

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veins
