

All In the Name of God

Squad Five-O

So, you say you have the right to kill. To seek and destroy at will. They've killed before the poor unborn. So you say you owe 'em one. All in the name of God. You murder, you kill, you steal. Continuously imposing your will. With blood on your hand, you make demands. Death to those you don't understand. It's a lie.
