Laura Veirs

Slain by your zirconium smile
I was slain by your olivine eyes
Slain, I was lying in piles
Hoping shovels would cast me in
Furnaces burn everlasting
Black tattoos of you on to me
Furnaces burn everlasting
Black tattoos Burn, brand my memory
Black tattoo of you
Wash me with your mouth
Blackish bright water from your eyes
Homing pigeons fly
To hover by your window white and shy
Homing pigeons fly
To hover by
Spill my ashes to the wind
Ghosts gather what they found
(Ghosts can gather what they found)
Now we can struggle in the web
We can struggle
With white spider stars come down
And night blowin' black from the ground
With white spider stars come down
And night blowin' black from the ground
