African Sunset

Tommy Page

Every time I see the sun go down
It turns my aching heart around
And when I see the setting sun
I think about the endless fun
With sunset, sunset
Every time the sun goes down
Reminds me of the love I've found
At sunset, sunsetSunset, african sunset
I hear you calling me, so far away
Sunset, my african sunset
I feel you reaching out
Across the waterSunset, african sunset
I hear you calling me, so far away
Sunset, my african sunset
I feel you reaching out
Across the water
