

Break Down the Wall (Original Version)

Anouk

Baby why you're so sad
What's the thing you're running from
Caught in the red lights
As if money is the cure Is this your only way to survive
Are you trying to get even with the past
What happened to the dreams you had
I think it's time for you to Show them you are able
To leave without saying one word
I know it won't be easy, baby
But I will run with you
'Cause every night has a day
Every wish a prayer
Don't loose your faith
And I'll be holding your hand
'Cause it's never too late
There's someone who needs you So break down that wall, baby
There's a new world out there waiting
Just tear down that wall, girl
Run away and don't look back
Break down that wall
Break down that wall
There's someone who needs you Lady it's your turn now
Just walk the streets with your head up high
Oh baby doesn't that feel right
So put a big smile on your face
You walk on straight
Yeah tell the motherfuckers they were wrong
Isn't this your sweetest revenge
Feels good, hey I told you so 'Cause every night has a day
Every wish has a prayer
Don't loose your faith
And I'll be holding your hand
'Cause it's never too late
There's someone who needs you So break down that wall, baby
There's a new world out there waiting
Just tear down that wall, girl
Run away and don't look back
Break down that wall
Break down that wall So break down that wall, baby

There's a new world out there
Tear down that wall, girl
Run away run away run away
Break down that wall
Break down that wall 'Cause I need you
