

Sentimental

Deborah Cox

That's the only time I get sentimental I used to mess around, but I never let it get into me
'Cause I didn't take you serious, baby
Now to be without your love, only makes me realize
What I could've had in you, honey Now that you're gone, I want you
I said, "It slapped me in my face"
And then my friends don't understand
Because I had the chance, I don't know why I'm going crazy alone in a daze and my heart ain't the same
And I don't even think unless I think about you
That's the only time I get sentimental, yeah
That's the reason why, baby, I can't let go of you
Yeah, that's the only time I get sentimental I miss you day and night, seems like you're still here
I'd rather be together, honey, oh
Now that I'm lost for words, I can't believe I'm on my own
I should've been looking at love Now that you're gone, I want you
I said it slapped me on my face
And now my friends don't understand
Because I had the chance, I don't know why I'm going crazy alone in a daze and my heart ain't the same
And I don't even think unless I think about you
That's the only time I get sentimental, yeah
That's the reason why, baby, I can't let go of you I'm going crazy alone in a daze and my heart ain't the same
And I don't even think unless I think about you, oh
That's the only time I get sentimental
That's the reason why, baby, I can't let go of you
That's the only time I get sentimental That's the only time I get sentimental Now that you're gone I want you more
I said it slapped me on my face
And then my friends don't understand
Because I had the chance, I don't know why I'm going crazy alone in a daze and my heart ain't the same
And I don't even think unless I think about you
That's the only time I get sentimental
That's the reason why, baby, I can't let go of you I'm going crazy alone in a daze and my heart ain't the same
And I don't even think unless I think about you
That's the only time I get sentimental
That's the reason why, baby, I can't let go of, I can't let go of you That's the only time I get sentimental
That's the only time I get
That's the only time I get
That's the only time I get sentimental
