I Fade Away

Pillar

As simple minded as it seems
There is only one place for me to be
And its right here on my knees
Seeking Your face, Your embrace
Something that I've never felt before
I've never felt beforeI make it so hard to believe
That there is someone out there
Reaching out their hand to help me to my feet
I've seen too much, forgot Your touch
Now I'm holding the hand
That holds the world, that holds the worldWhen I fade away
When I see Your face, I can feel You
'Cause I fade away from myself
When I see Your face, I can feel You
I start to fadeI'm still reminded of the days
When I turned my back on You
And told You we should go our separate ways
Well, I was wrong for far too long
But now I've learned to Never walk away, to never walk awayYou've shown me life through different eyes
But I'll never see the things You see
No matter how hard that I try
So I let go and lose control
And grab a hold of the hand
That holds the world, that holds the worldWhen I fade away
When I see Your face, I can feel You
'Cause I fade away from myself
When I see Your face, I can feel YouWhen I fade away from where I wanna be
I can feel there's something different
Burning inside of me
When I fade away from where I wanna be
I can feel there's something different
Burning inside of me'Cause I fade away
When I see Your face, I can feel You
'Cause I fade away from myself
When I see Your face, I can feel You
I fade away from myself, I fade away from myself
