One Woman

Randy Rogers Band

I don't need empty love words coming from somebody
That'll never love me like you do
I don't need to feel a warm touch from somebody else
'Cause no other touch could be this true
They can't reach me 'cause I'm tied toOne woman, you for me
I know that you're all I ever need
Forever besides you
Spending my life loving one womanWell, everything about you inside and out is perfect
Over the edge I always fall
Every time I see you the way I feel reminds me
The world I knew just seems so small
'Cause now with you I, I have it allOne woman, you for me
I know that you're all I ever need
Forever besides you
Spending my life loving one womanBack when I was selfish I thought I needed more
But that road led me nowhere
And I closed that door and now I live forOne woman, you for me
I know that you're all I ever need
Forever besides you
Spending my life lovingOne woman, you for me
I know that you're all I need
Forever besides you
Spending my life loving one woman, loving one woman
