

Phoenix

Tesseract

You exist
And you're a friend of mine
You're alive; It's not the end of the line
(Will we ever learn?)Cynical; the generations were abandoned here
No life is ever fair
When the mechanical fires are raging
The revolution's hereI can breathe again
I choose to never let go
Or lose control
See through the sights of a rifle
Live through the eyes of a child
Wake through the mind of a minor
To extol
I must change
Because I've been chasing shadows
(Change)Immersed in the night
Desperate and taken
(Change)
Run with the pride of the lion
You exist
And you're a friend of mine
You're alive; It's not the end of the line
(Will we ever learn?)
I'm a failure; I'm the wreckage in the storm
I'm enlightened; unafraid I am reborn
Cynical; the generations were abandoned here
No life is ever fair
When the mechanical fires are raging
The revolution's here
End
