Like The Shadows

Kamelot

(Bonus Track For Japan)In a glimpse from a quiet childhood
I recall a mother's smile
Nothing needs to be understood
I am freeIn the deep of a distant forest
I'll loose my sense of time
Where the words of the wind is honest
I can breatheSomeone told me there's a higher mountain
But I'll wait here for a while
Only lead by the deepest hunger
I'll flee from exileLile the shadows cover me
You're behind me once again
Rising from my ecstacy
Rising from the pain
Like the shoadows follow me
You can wash my steps away
Not the one I want to be
Still somehow the same
