Oh, Carolina

NEEDTOBREATHE

Oh Carolina
When I get back home to you we're gonna start a fire
Oh you know I miss you
And when we get back home to you I got a story to give youI been all mixed up been gathering dust
Down and down for days thinking bout us
I know we both can't deny it
There was a wrinkle in time way back when
We were living fast and I won't back in Truth is baby I've been surviving
Cuz I'm on my wayOh Carolina
Yeah, when I get back home to you we're gonna start a fire
Oh you know I miss you
And when we get back home to you I got a story to give youI got it pushed to the floor and it's almost light
Quarter past an hour and a matter of time
Body's been gone for miles but heart still driving
Cuz I'm on my way
Yeah I'm on my wayOh Carolina
Yeah, when I get back home to you we're gonna start a fire
Oh you know I miss you
And when we get back home to you I got a story to give youOh Carolina
Yeah, when I get back home to you we're gonna start a fire
Oh you know I miss you
And when we get back home to you I got a story to give youYeah when I get back home to you
When I get back home to you
When I get back home to you
We're gonna start a fire
