Voice In My Head

Buck-O-Nine

i woke up this morning to a voice in my head it said it's time to get a job it said it's time to more ahead it's time to do what's right it's time you get a life it said go to the closet and picked out some clothes make a healthy breakfast and a cup of jo
it's time to do what's right
it's time you get a lifeso i went to the closet and looked at my clothes and thought to myself i'm screwed a beat up old jacket and a pair of shoes that the dog has definitely chewedi rolled out of bed and to my surprise repo men was at my door with disgust in his eyes
it's time to do what's right
it's time you get a life
then he took all my stuff and laughed in my face gave me the finger and said you're a disgrace
it's time to do what's right
it's time you get a lifeso i looked in the mirror and i thought to myself that the voice, it could be right now it keeps coming back and talking to me everyday and everynight

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/