In the Stars

Jess Penner

Carry me home in the stars, in the stars.
There in your hands is my heart, it's my heart.
I'll be the one to say you know it's true.
Wound up so tightly now, waiting on a cue.
I, I, I, I, I think I love you.

Oh heavens, oh the beautiful heavens.
Oh heavens, oh the beautiful heavens.
How they open up wide when you're around.
Oh I don't know how you manage to stay down.

I know you want me to stay, I know you do.
But if we get carried away, we only lose.
You are the stars above and I am the sea.
I disappear into you and you drown in me.

Oh heavens, oh the beautiful heavens.
How they open up wide when you're around.
Oh heavens, oh the beautiful heavens.
Oh I don't know how you manage to stay down.
Oh heavens, oh the beautiful heavens.
How they open up wide when you're around.
Oh heavens, oh the beautiful heavens.
Oh I don't know how you manage to stay down.

I, I, I, I, I think I love you.
I, I, I, I, I think I love you.
Carry me home.
Carry me home.
Carry me home.
In the stars, in the stars.
