

Unvisible Zedd

Gogol Bordello

Little lady alone in her house she is preparing for her bed little does she know little does she know she is in her house with unvisible zedd little lady in her kitchen she's bending over over frying pan little does she know while she is bending over she is stripteasing for unvisible man little does she know while she is bending over
little lady alone in her bedroom she's watching program on a ku klux klan little does she know while she is yawning she is orally pleasing the unvisible man little lady in her tub she's nearly [incomprehensible]

little does she know little does she know inside of her there is unvisible sperm Lady lady alone in here house she [incomprehensible]
little does she know little does she know she's given a birth to a unvisible zedd
little does she know little does she know she's fallen in love with a unvisible zedd little lady lady lady
