

Acrobat Ache

Shane Nicholson

All that's real
You're pushing it slowly back under the wheel
We can stay
Two feet apart and a whole world away
You're keeping score
Standing on mountains and hoping for more And I'm throwing stones
Waiting for something to break
Moving beyond your mistake
Losing your acrobat ache Undisguised
You're old enough not to be acting surprised
You can shine
But only in a universe next to mine And I'm throwing stones
Waiting for something to break
Moving beyond your mistake
And losing your acrobat ache
Losing your acrobat ache
Losing your acrobat ache And all that's real
You're pushing it slowly back under the wheel And I'm throwing stones
And I'm waiting for something to break
And I'm moving beyond your mistake
And I'm losing your acrobat ache Losing your acrobat ache
Losing your acrobat ache
Losing your acrobat ache
Losing your acrobat ache (Waiting for something to break)
Losing your acrobat ache
(Waiting for something to break)
Losing your acrobat ache
(Waiting for something to break)
Losing your acrobat ache
