

Christmas Is All In the Heart (All I Really Want)

Steven Curtis Chapman

In a one bedroom apartment
On the humble side of town
There stands a little Christmas tree
It looks a lot like Charlie Brown's And underneath there's one little gift for him
And one little gift for her After six months on the new job
They're still barely getting by
So in the way of decorations
There's nothing there to catch your eye But both of them would be the first to say
We're together, we're gonna have the merriest Christmas anyway 'Cause Christmas is all in the heart
That's where the feeling starts
And like a fire inside, it touches every part
Christmas is all in the heart And even if no white snow falls
Well, that's all right because
The joy can still be found, wherever you are
Christmas is all, all in the heart Two little blond haired boys with big dreams
Tried to sleep but sleep wouldn't come
And we'd be tearing into presents
Long before the break of dawn With mom and dad and cameras making sure
We'd never forget that day, no, no, no Now I'm the one who's taking pictures
In the middle of the night
Of my own little dreamers
That just can't wait until daylight And in my sleepy eyes the spark still glows
Well, I guess there's just some things a kid never outgrows 'Cause Christmas is all in the heart
That's where the feeling starts
And like a fire inside, it touches every part
Christmas is all in the heart And even if no white snow falls
Well, that's all right because
The joy can still be found, wherever you are
Christmas is all, all in the heart No, it's not in the snow that may or may not fall
And it's not in the gifts around the tree
It's in the love Heaven gave, that night our Savior came
And that same love can still be found wherever you are 'Cause Christmas is all in the heart
And the joy can still be found, wherever you are
'Cause Christmas is all, all in the heart
It's all in the heart
