Hey You (Looking At the Moon)

Graham Nash

Hey you, looking at the moon
Waiting for the stars to give you answers
Eating in your cars and building fences
Is this what we've come to?Hey you, wailing by the wall
Hoping it'll fall in their direction
Waiting for another resurrection
Is this what we've come to?Tell me how come everything appears to be hazy?
Nothing left to see
Tell me how come everyone appears to be crazy, too?Tell me how come everything appears to be hazy?
Tell me how come everyone appears to be crazy, too?
