

Accidental Billionaires

The Summer Set

I must be dreaming
Still catching up from the night before
Where I was dancing in the dark, sliding 'cross the kitchen floor Yeah! We love like we're dying
One day these bad tattoos will fade
Just the clothes on our backs,
we'll be kids on the run
Yeah! Life has just begun!
Right now we are,
they couldn't change us if they tried
Hollywood is on fire
We're smashing bottles in the morning light
It's all about right now
the love, your fresh feeling
first time you're falling in love
It's all about right now
the best, cold streaming
dancing on the celing all night
It's all about...
We can run off to Vegas
I can put all my money on you We'll be accidental billionaires, drinking from the fountain of youth
And from the top of the world!
We'll throw it all away
Just the clothes on our backs,
we'll be kids on the run
Yeah! Life has just begun!
Right now we are,
they couldn't change us if they tried
Hollywood is on fire
We're smashing bottles in the morning light
the love, your fresh feeling
first time you're falling in love
It's all about right now
the best, cold streaming
dancing on the celing all night

It's all about...
(Whooh-oh-oh)
It's all about right now! (Whooh-oh-oh)
It's all about right now! (Whooh-oh-oh)
I must be dreaming
Still catching up from the night before
Right now we are,
they couldn't change us if they tried
Hollywood is on fire
We're smashing bottles in the morning light
the love, your fresh feeling
first time you're falling in love
the best, cold streaming
dancing on the celing all night
It's all about...
(Whooh-oh-oh)
It's all about right now! (Whooh-oh-oh)
It's all about right now! (Whooh-oh-oh)
