To Roam

Robert Pattinson

Well, I like this world
Well, I like this world
Well, I like this world
I like it how it was
I pray how it was
I like it how it wasGhosts in the rain
Cold walk of freedom
Well, I'm walking a hallway
I'm walking a hallway
Im walking a hallway
Said, I'm walking a hallway
I'm walking a hallway
Well, I'm walking a hallwayI am proud and I'm gloried
Thinking 'bout the day what'll surely come
When on the scene, I'm smile evaded
When outta nowhere, I'm gonna run
But I know where I go, I will be goneSomewhere to run to--if you see
You could see it through my mind
You wouldn't know it--no way
You'd know when my eyes roam
Through the fog and hail and sleet
I missed the snow and nowhere
Nowhere, nowhere, nowhere
You should've known where
Should've known where
You should've known where
Should've known better, baby'Cause I like this world
And I like this worldSome people want to roam
Some people, they roam this world alone
Some people were born to roam
Some people they roam this world aloneAlone
