

Speak Like a Child

Herbie Hancock

I'm not scared anymore
I'm not scared of the dark
When I sleep with you, with you
When I'm feeling alive
When I'm feeling strong again
When I'm with you, with you
When it hits me
Just like a runaway train
And it blows me away
Just like a hurricane
You make me happy
And I hope you feel the same
You make me feel
Just like a child, a child again
I'm not trapped anymore
Between Madonna and a whore
When I lay with you, with you
When the days run away
Like wild horses run away
When I'm with you, with you
When I'm breathing you in
Just like the morning air
When I'm wrapping you around
Just like a skin to wear
You make me happy
And I hope you feel the same
You make me feel
Just like a child, a child again
Oh, sweet thing
I'm born once again
For you, sweet thing
Just like a baby again
You make me happy
And I hope you feel the same
And I'm in heaven
When it feels like a gentle rain
You make me happy
And I want you to feel the same
You make me feel

Like a child, a child again
