

Not To Regret

Rancid

Some people say I'm fuckin crazy Roulette spinner blackjack winner But it don't phase me It's just amazing Someone shout out Hallelujah And if you like that you walk a tight rope She was a minuscule miniskirt hiked up So lets begin to put down a wage Everybody tells me to look within but I'll look within the city of sin I'm gonna tell you one thing, It's not to regret Blood of Jesus gonna cleans ya It's a modern day Sodom and Gomorrah I the city of sin, in the city of sin For some poor bastard it's a ruin It's like a coffin, a desert Kremlin Bus station, no hesitation If your lucky then you'll fuckin hit it You take an avoid with the money then you split it I'm gonna tell you one thing, It's not to regret It don't matter if you win there, just to be there rather than elsewhere Everybody tells me to look within but I'll look within the city of sin In the city of sin, in the city of sin Some people say I'm fuckin crazy But it don't phase me It's just amazing Someone shout out Hallelujah Roulette spinner blackjack winner Everybody tells me to look within but I'll look within the city of sin I'm gonna tell you one thing, It's not to regret In the city of sin, in the city of sin
