

Metamorphosis

Metalium

Alone and isolated
Reflecting on my sorted past
I've chosen not to stayTake my chances elsewhere now
Behold the flask from where I stand
Chrome nectar scalds my trembling hand
My fate is sealedI draw it to my anxious lips
A spellbound urge I can't resistFell the rush of pain within my vain
Inflamed power mainlined to my brain
MetamorphosisMy flesh, a composite outer shell
Metalium changing every cell
Shield for eternityPerfect pure automaton
Body and mind are fused as oneFell the rush of pain within my vain
Inflamed power mainlined to my brain
MetamorphosisSensation intensified beyond belief
Thankful for the mission I received
MetamorphosisFeel the rush of pain within my vain
Inflamed power mainlined to my brain
Sensation intensified beyond beliefOh, thankful for the mission I received
Fell the rush of pain within my vain
MetamorphosisInflamed power mainlined to my brain
Sensation intensified beyond belief
Metamorphosis
Oh, thankful for the mission I receivedMetamorphosis
