Rush

Poisonblack

I can't help but follow in spite of goign insane
For I know you'll swallow the whole of my pain
I'm stepping out of the light to feel what darkness can sow
I stare at the dead red lie...just one glance and I knowAll disguised beneath the smile of the temptress, siren, evil child
the devil's sweetest whoreCause you're feeding the fire within me
Cause you're making me feel so alive
Cause it's only the end of the suffering and I'm drowning in this rushI was down, now flying...going nowhere fast
There's no denying I need this feeling to last
I breathe in and get higher and the ache fades from sharp to dull
The knives of desire...I feel them allA thousand cuts still leave me cold Give me more this soul's been sold and I hope this time I won't wake up deadDon't blame yourself for what you can't ignore? Don't blame yourself for wanting more and more
Flesh on flesh raising breaths on breaths
I love the rush of death...
