

Why Can't I Say Goodnight

Kim Richey

It's almost sunrise
Hours and hours gone by
Candles are burned down
Turned into morning lightThe time to go has come and gone
Why can't I? Why can't I say goodnight?The whole world is sleeping
And still I can't give in
It's a love story
I never want to endThe time to go has come and gone
Why can't I? Why can't I say goodnight?I'm using up all my strength
I can't tear myself away
It only gets harder as night turns to dayThere isn't one place
Honey, that I'd rather be
Right here in your arms
With your head lying on meThe time to go has come and gone
Why can't I? Why can't I say goodnight?
Darling why can't I say goodnight?
