

Criminal

Ash Koley

It feels so good just to love you, like I love you
It should be illegal
Baby it feels so good, just to love you, like I love you
It should be illegal
If it was, Iâ€™d be a criminal
I'd be a criminal
Iâ€™d be a criminal
Iâ€™d be a criminal

Ten thousand reasons I should run away
You've got me bound and chained
That don't make me a prisoner

I've kissed your demons and I loved the taste
You broke my heart awake
Iâ€™m forever and only yours

If dark goes light, if day turns night, then maybe wrong could be all right

We've come so far so fast we're in so deep
Bulletproof, we're thick as thieves
What we got is unbreakable

Keep setting fires just to feel the heat
Itâ€™s better when it's bittersweet
Yeah the burn's inescapable

If dark goes light, if day turns night, then maybe wrong could be all right

And it feels so good, good to love you, like I love you
It should be illegal
Baby it feels so good, just to love you, like I love you
It should be illegal
If it was, Iâ€™d be a criminal

Doinâ€™ bad things never felt so right
Donâ€™t look down cause weâ€™re on this high
We canâ€™t go back cause weâ€™re on this ride
You and me until we die
