My Life Inside Your Heart

Rise Against

Fighting back the impulse, turn my head and close my eyes
Spending these nights awake and cold and paralyzed
Wonder, how we've got this far and never realized
The common thread that binds our lives
And I know you hurt but I can help you if you can
Take my hand
And we'll live inside the dreams we left behind
Take my hand
As we move from this place to a better life
Take my hand
If you take my hand
Fighting back the feeling that you always could deny
Anything but everything we know is just a lie
As I cremate this memory and watch the darkened ashes rise
And beneath the smoke I'll stand and ask you if you can
Take my hand
And I'll promise not to ever let it go
Take my hand
'Cause this hope is greater than you'll ever know
Take my hand
And this is all I'll ever ask of you to show
Fight back the urges, turn my head and close my eyes
And will I wake tomorrow still alive?
I'm still dreaming, I'm still waiting, I'm still sure
You're still living in a life, that isn't yours
And this is part of me, I hope you never see
This is my life inside your heart
Take my hand
And I'll promise not to ever let it go
Take my hand
'Cause this hope is greater than you'll ever know
Take my hand
And this is all I'll ever ask of you to show
