Bad Habits

General Fiasco

Whatever sticks is the habit today,
You know it needs no thought if it's throw away
And it seems like a lack of self-restraint
At least it's moving forward again.
Are you ever gonna let me in,
Are you ever gonna let me in?
I'm starting to think now
That maybe you did,
You got this broken minds but they're
Well hid if it's costly,
If it wears you out
Where's you at a little tangled
Release me now.
Are you ever gonna let me in,
Are you ever gonna let me in?
Hey, be my world
You're all I wanted
Hey, take my heart but I'm not here to
Spend and pay, u-u-uh
You're smart enough to figure it out.
It's easy enough to get carried away if I
Could help myself know I wouldn't say these Tired faces hollow places
We're complacent , let's just face it.
Never gonna let me in Never gonna.
Lies and let me downs are all i get from you,
You make promises but you never follow through
And I can't say I'm getting anywhere
Not getting. Hey, be my world
You're all I wanted
Hey, take my heart but I'm not here to
Spend and pay, u-u-uh
You're smart enough to figure it out.
Lies and let me downs are all i get from you,
You make promises but you never follow through.
And I can't say I'm getting anywhere,
Not getting. Hey, be my world
You're all I wanted!
Hey, take my heart but I'm not here to

Spend and pay, u-u-uh
You're smart enough to figure it out.
Hey, be my world
You're all I wanted
Hey, take my heart but I'm not here to
Spend and pay, u-u-uh
You're smart enough to figure it out.
