

(Thinking and Wondering) What I'm Gonna Do

King's X

So would you take me for a ride
And let me know I'm alive Oh, sometimes I wish I didn't
Have an answer or a clue to anything
All this wondering and this thinking and wondering
And this thinking and wondering what I'm gonna do So many reasons to believe, yeah
I am so easily deceived, oh Oh, sometimes I wish I didn't
Have an answer or a clue to anything
All this wondering and this thinking and wondering
And this thinking and wondering what I'm gonna do So would you take me for a ride
And let me know I'm still alive, oh Oh, sometimes I wish I didn't
Have an answer or a clue to anything
All this wondering and this thinking and wondering
And this thinking and wondering what I'm gonna do
