

I Found You

SOJA

We could spend more time together
I'm talking to you
And you could get out of that mirror
We could talk this thru
Cause my eyes open, open wide
And all i see, is you
And in this lifeI always find you
I find you
I find you
The days are passing faster than i
Ever hope they would
My heart's open, open wide
And all i need, is you
I feel it in, the rain and in the [?]It's in the [?], i find you
I find you
I find youThe pieces changing one by one
And we are changing too
We are circling the stars and
My mind's open open wide
And that's how i read the news
We become the cancer i amTrying to remove
To remove
I find you
Seventy is in his life and
What we've got to show
We built the family of millions with Millions more to go
My eyes open open wide
Wake my self for you
To thank you for
The memories that [?]
It's all because of youI found you
I found you
I found youIf i can spend the rest of my life with my people
I will do it over and over again, i found you
Just like the land that bear the name Africa,
Should have is on my mind, I found you
I don't wanna wait, today
For something that might, never ever show its face,

AgainI find you
I open my eyes, each morning I rise
To find the truth that, I found you
