Male Supremacy

Carnivore

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I live to war it's in my blood if I want it I take the men I've killed the children slaves and all the woman I've raped between my legs I've got what it takes to be called a man fighting, feasting, fucking all I can moonlight on horseback till death we will ride northern winds pushing us towards suicide Mars god of war masturbating in rage wild libido I've freed from its cage
Male Supremacy
I eat the brains from my enemy's head I proudly wear their scalps I burn their towns to the ground to me the prisoners bow muscle, sweat, long hair and dirt leather, fur and chains my uniform torn and worn covered with blood stains testosterone mates with adrenaline bearing a son of insane aggression woman will never know or understand the power men feel to kill with their hands Chorus
After the war I come home weak and sore I fall into your arms we lie by the fire you feed my desire with me safe and warm outside the wind blows cold inside the embers glow shelter from the storm Years been away I fought night and day for my land and my king woman it's true I do battle for you, you my everything when on the fur I make love to her how her body sings Chorus
