Final Warning

Turbonegro

Owners of cars
Closers of bars
Cross country stars
This is my final warningBreakers of deals
Stealers of meals
Sealers of seals
This is my final warningAll you squares in the dead zone
Beware in the danger zone
All you squares in the dead zone
Knock, knock and there's nobody homeJump back, jump back
Step back, step back
When you die you'll be dead
You'll be on your ownI'm gonna make you well-behave
I'm gonna penetrate your cave
I'm gonna dance on your grave
this is my final warningI'll burn you at the stake
I'll throw you in a lake
I'll never hesitate, never hesitate
This is my final warningAll you squares in the dead zone
Beware in the danger zone
All you squares in the dead zone
Knock, knock and there's nobody homeJump back, jump back
Step back, step back
When you die you'll be dead
You'll be on your ownIt's the final countdown
For the final clampdownThis is my final warning
I'm gonna keep you running
I'll kill you in the morning
When you see me comingI'll kill you all without mercy
