

One More Drinkin' Song

Jerrod Niemann

Today i wanted to write a tune started strummin' this little groove i could have wrote about love, or money, something sad or somethin funny But hey hey hey what's so wrong with one more drinkin song hold up your cups and sing along to one more drinkin song
And If by chance this brings you cheer maybe someday you'll bring me a beer or not to mention my favoirte drink A Marga-daquiri-screw-olada-on the beach hey hey hey what's so wrong

So here's to cheap whiskey and fine wine buyin' shots and pick-up lines and here's to bartenders tryin' to get paid while all of us are trying to get.....
Hey hey hey what's so wrong
