Red Horizon

Omen

[Dedicated to the people of Poland]They try to lock you away
From the human race,
Strip you of your dignityA curtain forged in iron
Everyone must face,
Still you dream of running free[Chorus]
You're locked in a Red Horizon
Living fearful of the bearAll this time
You thought you had it made,
Freedom was right there in your hand
Now you're feeling
Your're just another slave,
Still your mind can't comprehandYou're locked in a Red Horizon
Living fearful of the bear
Locked in a Red Horizon
Pain and sorrow everywhereDo you really know the truth
It's right there in your heart
Will you ever get away
The time is now to startLooking from the Earth
Reaching for the sun
Trying hard to run
Do you feel alone
Thousands by your side
Still you've never known
There's a changing tide
From the Red HorizonThey try to lock you away
From the human race,
Strip you of your dignityA curtain forged in iron
Everyone must face,
Still you dream of running freeYou're locked in a Red Horizon
Living fearful of the bear
Locked in a Red Horizon
Pain and sorrow everywhereRed Horizon let me go
