The End

Ebony Tears

I'm falling endless downwards
Screaming like the filth inside of me
Burning like a fallen god dropped from high above
Dying to be released from it allFilth, Hate, Angst, A TestBurning my candle in both ends
Trapped inside this mess it's no longer me
Hatred tears my soul apart but my vision is my pain
I bash my head against the wall to be freeFilth, Hate, Angst, A Test
Sick of it allIt's time to leap to take the fall
I'm so tired to pretend
There's no meaning to it all I'm waiting for the end
All my power turned to grief
Dreams faded away
I am waiting to be released no beginning without an end
