Harrisburg (acoustic)

Josh Ritter

Romero got married on the fifth of July
In our Lady of Immaculate Dawn
Could have got married in the revival man's tent
But there ain't no reviving what's gone
Slipped like a shadow from the family he made
In a little white house by the woods
Dropped the kids at the mission, with a rose for the virgin
She knew he was gone for goodIt's a long way to Heaven, it's closer to Harrisburg
And that's still a long way from the place where we are
And if evil exists its a pair of train tracks
And the devil is a railroad carCould have stayed somewhere but the train tracks kept going
And it seems like they always left soon and the wolves that he ran with they moaned low and painful sang sad misereres to the moon(chorus)
