Better Part Of Me

Grey Eye Glances

Given the space and the time now removed given a gift I can feel
Looking through choices
We made just to live
Looking back now at the reasons they give I start to breathe
It shows in me
A better part of me
Ã‚Â
All of my instincts and all of my pride
Tell me the way it should be
As I remember
I barely recall
Something that changed me
You took it for all you took from me
Until you see
A better part of me
Ã‚Â
Now whenever you start it moving
Tell me what you need
Soon if only all you know
Maybe not indeed
Ã‚Â
Peering out over the mountains of fear
Seeing them as they appear
Grasping for vision
In a valley of lies
To bring down the mountain
I must close my eyes
So I might see
So I might free
A better part of me
Ã‚Â
Now whenever you start it moving
Tell me what you need
Soon if only all you know
Maybe not indeed
