Performance

Priestess

Some say happiness is a burden
As I lie here trying to attain
Inside/Outside Im nothing
But the more I see through the more I have to gainIf at first you dont succeed its normal.
But the second time youre expected to perform.
We perform,
Stand up, listen, Ill tell you where we went wrong.Give me a reason to stop asking
I know that some things cant be mine
Inside/Outside Im nothing
And the layers crumble one piece at a time.If you expect me to go out there and shine every night
You know theres something about that that just isnt rightWe perform
Stand up, listen, Ill tell you where we went wrong
