If You Want Some

Joel Crouse

You gotta get off the clock and get on the phone
And tell everyone you know
To get on over to my house
And leave their worries there by the door

It's probably gonna get a little crazy
Your memory's gonna be a little hazy
But you don't forget it
That's right I said it
It's gonna be
Epic

If you want some, come and get some
We got enough girl to go around
Just good friends having a good time
Everybody is throwing down
We're living it up, living it up, living like you never, ever done before
If you want some, come and get some
If you run out, come back for more.

And now don't run for your truck if the blue lights show up
Just everybody keep your cool
My cousin's a cop and we ain't gonna stop
Cause he's here to party too

It's probably gonna get a little crazy
Your memory's gonna be a little hazy
But you don't forget it
That's right I said it
It's gonna be
Epic

If you want some, come and get some
We got enough girl to go around
Just good friends having a good time
Everybody is throwing down
We're living it up, living it up, living like you never, ever done before
If you want some, come and get some
If you run out, come back for more.

We don't need reminding, it's been a hard week
Girl let's unwind and
Come on baby, you know what to do
Yeah

If you want some, come and get some
We got enough girl to go around
Just good friends having a good time
Everybody is throwing down
We're living it up, living it up, living like you never, ever done before
If you want some, come and get some
If you run out, come back for more, yeah
