

Inspiration

TonÃ©x

Like the fragrance after a morning rain
Your ideas are so fresh to me
You are my joy in the midst of pain
Happiness divine surrounds me

Lost in your love utopia, joy sublime in euphoria
Lord, I'll do anything thing for ya
Just don't leave me
Now my winter turns to spring

You give me a reason to love again
You give me a reason to sing again
You give me a reason to breathe again
Inspiration, inspiration, inspiration

Butterflies all around me now
You make me feel so happy
Angels flyin' around me now
Beautiful music from Heaven sets me free

Lost in your utopia, joy sublime in euphoria
Lord, I'll do anything thing for ya
Just don't leave me
You turn my winter to spring

You give me a reason to love again
You give me a reason to sing again
You give me a reason to breathe again
Inspiration, inspiration, inspiration

You give me a reason to love again
You give me a reason to sing again
You give me a reason to breathe again
Inspiration, inspiration, inspiration

You give me a reason to love again
You give me a reason to sing again
You give me a reason to breathe again
Inspiration, inspiration, inspiration

You give me a reason to love again
You give me a reason to sing again
You give me a reason to breathe again
Inspiration, inspiration, inspiration
