Queen & John

Good Riddance

you spoke your piece with a trembling voice then turned away i'm looking for reasons why do i always act this way running on self pity i was only thinking about myself you said i never considered you so you need some time alone now you're upstairs and i'm going down and i know that it's my fault you're not around so this is loss how sweet regret just don't give up on me yet i know that i've hurt you i made it harder than it has to be if i wasn't so selfish would you want to stay with me under any circumstance could you give me one more chance i want so much to turn it around but this old behavior brings me down now you're upstairs and i'm going down and i know that it's my fault you're not around so this is loss how sweet regret just don't give up on me yet on me yet with an aching chest and a two ton heart i retrace my steps trying to find my part regretting words words that came out wrong at the second cup at the corner of queen and john queen and john.
