Point Of View

D-A-D

Yeah, you like a man when his mind is strong
When his ego's so high he couldn't be wrong
You like a man when he's right at the top
When his ego is growing and it don't seem to stopSee, I'd like to share your point of view
As long as it's my view too
Can't win on a compromise, I'd rather lose on my own
'Coz I feel kind of good when I'm all aloneAnd you play the games by the book and the rules
See I play 'em backwards let's see who lose
Yeah, you don't go for the man, you go for his balls
Let's see who stands, let's see who fallsYeah, I'd like to share your point of view
As long as it's my view too
Can't win on a compromise, I'd rather lose on my own
'Coz I feel kind of good when I'm all aloneAnd if I take a stand it will be my own
And take it yeah, yeahTake a look in these eyes, do they look sincere?
Do you read my lips, do I make it clear?
Bye bye so long
I don't want you hereYeah, I tried to share your points of view
If not all then maybe just a few
I couldn't win on a compromise, I'd rather lose on my own
'Coz I feel kind of good when I'm all aloneAnd if I take a stand it'll be my own
Get out of my heart
And my mind
And my home
