

No Plans for the Future

Natalie Cole

Let the dishes wait, no need in dusting

No reason to clean the dirty floor

'Cause I'm sure it doesn't matter

Now that he has gone away I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here today

Let them go to the park and I'll sit alone here in the dark No joy left in my heart anymore

Let me hold on to my memories

And if I die this way just let it be I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here with me Why should I comb
my head

When I know, I'm not going anywhere?

Why should I keep right on giving

When I've lost my only reason for living?

So go on, just go on and have yourself a ball I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here

I have no plans for the future 'cause he's not here at all
