

The Culling

Knights of the Abyss

This world is evil their souls are corrupt
Will we stand for truth or be tossed about
They are like brute beasts creatures of instinct
Born only to be caught and destroyed Unite gather their kind
Unveil the darkness of these troubled times
Reveal the elite for what they truly are Uprise and come forth soldiers of revolt
Sons and daughters of this desponded world stand against Their poisonous of plots
Hear the cries of the silenced cleansing fire is near
As darkness emerges stand without fear beware The years of seven the stage is now set Overthrow these tables of unjust men
Overthrow this temple of countless sin Face the truth of your final demise
Its your turn to bow in fear Stand for justice stand for truth
Undo the practice of repulsive abuse
Bleed them out force them down
Refuse their lies and may truth resound eternally Treason among the sworn they've shut the mouth
Of humanity Arise the soldiers of light
Stand for justice stand for truth
Undo the practice of repulsive abuse
Bleed them out force them down
Refuse their lies and may truth resound eternally
