This Cold Black

Slipknot

Mother nature is a coward
(Mother nature is a whore)
No more presence, no more power
I pray for death by the hourCut another smile into me (Into me is all you are)
My artifice wont recognize me
You wont find me anymorePost-traumatic war machines
The pessimists still wont believe
Throw away my past mistakes
Its all I can to feelLet my weapons be you children
Let my armies be your damned
Try to suffer on in silence
Try to stop me if you canPneumatic destroyer, pathetic seducer
Distortion sufficient
Someday, one day
Well live our lives againMy ghosts have found their way back home
I have every right to kill my own
(I have every right to kill my own)
I am something now that never could existMy anguish conquers all
Pay the price and watch me fall
My only key is broken
My broken key is only mePneumatic destroyer, pathetic seducer
Distortion sufficient
Someday, one day
Well live our lives againYou utter waste of tired flesh
It doesnt matter if you cant progress
Even now they still create me
Give me your ignorance, irritate meI am made of the same debris
You want it all but you didnt want me
Hypocrite with no real use
Im alive, whats your excuse?Pneumatic destroyer, pathetic seducer
Distortion sufficient
Someday, one day
Well live our lives againPneumatic destroyer, pathetic seducer
Distortion sufficient
Someday, one day
Well live our lives again
Well live our lives again
