

Swim

The Ready Set

I've been the blankets, the covers that keep you warm every night
I do a lot of not anything even if my hands are tied
Tie them up again, you can fill me in, and I'd be fine with it
I know how to swim
Send a hurricane to me
Stuck in your undertone
Swim, sinking never felt so sweet
I can't let this one go
Stuck in your undertone
Stuck in your undertone
I'd bare the burden of all of it if you're hurting and alone
I can't be certain if anything's even worth it but I'm diving into the unknown
So tie me up again, you can fill me in, and I'd be fine with it
I know how to swim
Send a hurricane to me
Stuck in your undertone
Swim, sinking never felt so sweet
I can't let this one go
Stuck in your undertone
Stuck in your undertone
Stuck in your undertone
Don't let me float away, don't let me float away
I'm never gonna shake you cause you're everything
That keeps me awake
I know how to swim
(I know how to swim)
Send a hurricane to me
Stuck in your undertone
Swim, sinking never felt so sweet
(So sweet, so sweet)
I can't let this one go
(Woah)
Stuck in your undertone
(Woah your undertone)
Stuck in your undertone
